KAYAKING AT DEERFIELD ISLAND

MONDAY, APRIL 26, 2004
1:30PM – 5:00PM

Enjoy the natural environment of a Designated Urban Wilderness, as you explore Deerfield Island by kayak! The Intracoastal Waterway and the Hillsboro River border this park, which is accessible only by boat, and Royal Palm canals. The heavily wooded 56-acre site, The park provides a critical habitat for the gopher tortoise and is a nesting place for squirrels, raccoons, and armadillos. Both migratory and indigenous sea birds also use it as a roosting and feeding place.

The island's main trails are the half-mile Coquina Trail, which runs through a coastal hardwood hammock and includes an observation platform overlooking the Intracoastal Waterway, and the three-quarter-mile Mangrove Trail, which includes a 1,600-foot boardwalk through a mangrove wetland.

You will depart from Pioneer Park and kayak through the Intracoastal Waterway to Deerfield Island. This is an opportunity to view some of the beautiful homes along the way. Once you reach Deerfield Island, you will have the opportunity to go onto the island to walk down the boardwalk and trails to observe nature at its best. It will prove to be a truly invigorating afternoon!

INCLUSIONS:

- Round-trip transportation via deluxe minicoach
- Driver gratuity
- Kayak rental and guide
- Health snack and water
- All applicable taxes and gratuities

DEEP-SEA FISHING EXCURSION

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 2004
1:30PM – 5:30PM

The Gulf Stream runs just offshore from the Palm Beaches, creating one of the world's greatest sport fishing locations. Join fellow attendees as you board fully-equipped fishing vessels, each featuring an experienced captain and mate who know where to go for productive salt-water game fishing. Swordfish, sailfish, blue marlin, dolphin, wahoo and bonito abound in the warm Gulf Stream currents and offshore reefs. Anglers come from as far away as Australia, England and most of Europe to fish for some of the heartiest fighters in the Atlantic. This will be an unforgettable experience!

INCLUSIONS:

- Half-day fishing rental including fresh bait and tackle
- Refreshments to include non-alcoholic beverages and beer
- Crew gratuities
- All applicable taxes and gratuities

COST: $175.00 Per Person
